TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAILWAY,

It is possitively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time or quipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

The "St. Louis & Southeastern"

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to C. S BARRETT, Southern Passenger Agent, Postoffice Box 242, Chattanooga Tenn., or to the undersigned.

Public Schools—Who are Responsible.

It is a favorite charge of the blatant Democracy that the Republican party is responsible for the decay of the public school system and the downfall of the University. We will admit that the charge is a serious one. The person who would deliberately destroy the eyesight of another, is humane compared to him who would adopt measures to shroud the mind in darkness, and this is precisely what has been attempted in North Carolina. Let us examine the subject and ascertain where the blame belongs.

The Constitution—the offering of the Republican party to the State of North Carolina, and upon which we are willing to stand, as the greatest benefactors the State ever had—in article IX provides for a general and uniform system of public schools wherein tuition shall be FREE to all the children of the State between the ages of six and twenty-one years. The General Assembly are commanded by this instrument to establish these schools, which shall be taught at least four months in the year; and is empowered to enact laws enforcing compulsory attendance. Under the provisions of the same article, the amount of public property devoted to the purposes of free education, considering the poverty in which the Democracy had plunged the State, was great, and the enforcement of the provisions of the Constitution would have resulted in the gradual formation of a public school system which would have been an ornament to the country.

The only Republican General Assembly the State ever enjoyed, passed a school law, which, though imperfect, was liberal in its provisions for general education. Under it schools were organized, and, notwithstanding much opposition, made some progress. The colored people especially were anxious for the boon of education, and the ardor of their pursuit was increased by the privation they had so long suffered. The liberality of people living in other States was aroused to the wants of our section, and it took a form and shape in the the magnificent donations which have provided the means of free instistruction to so many of our youth.

Each of the Democratic Legislatures, elected under the present Constitution, have considered the subject of public schools, and passed a law to suit their views. The law of 1871-'72 virtually closed every public school house in the State; and the indigent youth were consigned to ignorance and its attendant evils. The present Legislature, at its previous session, amended the school law of its predecessor, and now the provisions of the Constitution are partially complied with. The pressure which was brought to bear upon them from their own constituents was greater than they could bear; hence the modification of the law. Let the people of the State look at the work of both parties in connection with public schools and say which has done the greater amount of good for the State.

The funds of the public schools which existed before the war, were swallowed in that vortex which was put in motion by the destructive ambition of the secession Democracy. The State is not able to endow the University, and make it free; but it is able to give primary instruction to most of its youth. This the Republican party have always exhibited the greatest willingness to do; and this is what it will do when it comes into power in the Legislature after the next election.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

On motion of Mr. Cramer, the Senate adjourned.

TWENTY-FIFTH DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.
SENATE.

TUESDAY, Dec. 16.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock, Lieut. Governor in the chair.

By Mr. Murphy: A bill for the annual appropriation for the Institution for the Deaf Dumb and Blind Asylum.

By Mr. Troy: A bill to change the constitution of the State. (Provides for the appropriation of the whole of the capitation tax to school purposes.) Referred to Judiciary committee.

By Mr. Horton: A bill to incorporate the Wilkesboro' and Yadkin River Bridge Company. Referred to committee on Corporations.

By Mr. Troy: A bill amendatory of an act to authorize the city commissioners of Fayetteville to appoint a receiver of taxes. Placed on calendar.

By Mr. Troy: A bill to incorporate the Tokay Wine Company of Fayetteville. Referred to committee on Corporations.

By Mr. Ellis, of Columbus: A bill to enlarge the Insane Asylum of North Carolina, and for the better government of the same. Placed on calendar, and, on motion of Mr. Cramer, made the special order for Friday next at 12 o'clock.

By Mr. Johnson: A bill to pay jurors in certain cases. Referred to Judiciary committee.

By Mr. Troy: A resolution of request to the Judiciary committee concerning the best action to be taken in regard to the State University. Adopted.

Special Order.

At half-past 12 o'clock the bill for the adjustment of the State debt was taken up as the special order for that hour.

Mr. Troy offered an amendment as a new section to the bill which reads: "That the Public Treasurer be, and he is hereby authorized and directed to omit from his future annual reports any and all bonds or other evidences of indebtedness not herein mentioned." (Referring especially to the special tax bonds.)

Mr. Norwood, at considerable length and in an elaborate argument, favored the amendment offered by himself on the consideration of the bill last Friday. His amendment reads as follows:

Strike out all after the words "the General Assembly of North Carolina do," and insert the following,

Resolved, That in consequence of the results of the late war, and the legislation of both the general and State governments which succeed it, the people of North Carolina have been deprived of all ability, at the present time to pay any part of their State debt.

Resolved, That to support and maintain the administration of the State government in all its divisions and departments, as the Constitution provides—to educate the children of the State—to support the poor—to take care of the idiots and the insane—the deaf and blind—and the destitute orphans—and also, to provide and maintain suitable prisons for convicts, imposes upon us a higher obligation of paying an honest debt; especially when that debt was contracted under circumstances now so changed, and its payment depending upon means so completely swept away, and by causes which we, as a State, had no power to prevent or control.

Resolved, That we submit to the enlightened consideration of Congress, if the general government, under all circumstances, would not act wisely, by assuming the payment of so much of our State debt as in justice and equity ought to be paid.

Pending a discussion between Messrs. Welch and Humphrey, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The House was called to order at 10½ o'clock, a. m., Mr. Speaker Robinson in the Chair.

Mr. McGehee, from the Joint Select Committee on Special Tax bonds, submitted the following report:

The House branch of the Joint Select Committee on the State Debt, in response to the resolution adopted by the House on Saturday last, beg leave to report that a bill has been reported to the Senate, substantially embodying the views of the Joint Select Committee in regard to what is known as the old debt; that in regard to the "Special Tax Bonds," the House branch of said Committee have considered all the bills and resolutions referring to said bonds which have been submitted to the House, and recommend the following resolution as a substitute therefor:

"The General Assembly of North Carolina do resolve, That the bonds commonly known as "The Special Tax Bonds of North Carolina" do constitute no part of the public debt of North Carolina. That the Public Treasurer is hereby directed not to make any mention, note or item of said bonds on the books of his office. That it shall be unlawful for the Public Treasurer to pay out any of the public money for interest or for the principal of any of said bonds."

By Mr. Patrick, a resolution for the relief of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind. Calender.

By Mr. Robertson, a bill to provide for the appointment, by the Governor, of State Centennial managers at the International Centennial Exposition in 1876 at Philadelphia. Referred.

By Mr. Scott, a bill in relation to the deeds of Sheriffs and Coroners. Referred.

By Mr. Bennett, a bill in reference to the meetings of the stockholders of the Carolina Central Railway Company.—Referred.

By Mr. Gudger, a bill to establish a Bureau of Immigration and Statistics. Referred.

By Mr. Patrick, a bill to repeal chapter 114, Revised Code, entitled "Usury." Referred.

Mr. Johnston moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table. Lost.

The motion to reconsider was adopted.

Mr. Mitchell was announced to succeed Mr. Outlaw as Chairman of House branch of the Joint committee on Printing, the latter gentleman having withdrawn from said committee.

Special Order.

The bill to amend the act for amnesty and pardon came up as the special order for this hour (12 m.)

Mr. McGehee moved to amend by extending amnesty and pardon free and full to all persons referred to in section 1 of said act who may have committed any crime against any law of the State as designated in said section 1 of the act, except such persons as may have commtted arson, rape and burglary, granting complete amnesty and pardon with the excertions mentioned. The bill was put to a vote and failed to pass its second reading—yeas 4, nays 56.

By Mr. Bennett, a bill in relation to the payment of costs by the State. Referred.

The consolidation railroad bill was taken up as the unfinished business and discussed to a considerable length, when, on motion of Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, the further consideration of the matter was postponed until to-morrow after the morning hour.

Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, offered a resolution that the General Assembly adjourn on the 22d of December, to meet again on the 12th of January, 1874, and that the resolution adjourning on the 24th instant be rescinded.

Mr. Brown, of Mecklenburg moved to strike out "January 12th," and insert "January 19th." Lost

The previous question being ordered the resolution was put to a vote and adopted.

Adjourned.

"We have been shown," says the St. Louis Republican, "a piece of elastic stone, which was quarried near Goldsboro, North Carolina, and recently presented to the St. Louis University by Judge Finney. It is a bar of white sand-stone, one foot in length by one inch in width and thickness; it is easily bent in any direction, returning with a spring, when suddenly loosed, to its proper axis. It may also be compressed with a slight pressure, or extended, and it recovers its shape as readily as caoutchone or india-rubber."

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THE SUN.

—:o:—

WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND DAILY.

THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require any extended recommendation, but the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will, we hope, give it many thousands more are briefly as follows,

It is a first rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always presented in a clear, intelligible, and interesting manner.

It is a first rate family paper, full of entertaining and instructive reading of every kind, but containing nothing that can offend the most delicate and scrupulous taste

It is a first rate story paper. The best tales and romances of current literature are carefully selected and legibly printed in its pages,

It is a first rate agricultural paper. The most fresh and instructive articles on agricultural topics regularly appear in this department.

It is an independent political paper, belonging to no party and wearing no color.—It fights for principle, and for the election of the best men to office. It especially devotes its energies to the exposure of the great corruptions that now weaken and disgrace our country and threaten to undermine republican institutions altogether. It has no fear of knaves, and asks no favors from their supporters.

It reports the fashions for the ladies and the markets for the men, especially the cattle markets, to which it pays particular attention.

Finally, it is the cheapest paper pulished. One dollar a year will secure it for any subscriber. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have THE WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Any one who sends a single dollar will get the paper for a year.

We have no traveling agents.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty six columns. Only $1 00 a year. No discounts from this rule.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY SUN.—Same size as the Daily Sun. $2 00 a year. A discount of 20 per cent. to clubs of 10 or over.

THE DAILY SUN.—A large four page newspaper of twenty eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription price 50 cents a month, or $6 00 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent. Address, Prospectus for 1874—Seventh year.

THE ALDINE,

An Illustrated Monthly journal, universally admitted to be Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or Music Stores

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos, besides!

ART DEPARTMENT, 1874.

The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world-wide reputation, and in the art centres of Europe it is an admitted fact that its wood cuts are examples of the highest perfection ever attained. The common prejudice in favor of 'ssteel plates," is rapidly yielding to a more educated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality with greater facility of production. The woodcuts of THE ALDIFE possess all the delicacy and elaborate finish of the most costly steel plate, while they afford a better rendering of the artist's original.

To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other decent representations of the productions of great painters.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, THE ALEINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest. Thus the subscribers to THE ALIENE will at a trifling cost, enjoy in his own home the pleasure and refining influences of true art.

The quarterly tinted plates for 1874 will be by Thos. Moran and J. D. Woodward.

The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attraction any of its predecessors.

PREMIUM FOR 1874.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures were painted in oil for the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent "The East," and "The West." One is a view in the White Mountins New Hampshire the other gives the Cliffs of Green River Wyoming Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves in a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates, and are in size (12 x 16) and appearance exact fac-similes of the originals. The presentation of a worthy example of America's greatest landscape painter to the subscribers of THE ALDINE was a bold but peculiarly happy idea, and its successful realization is attested by the following testimonial, over the signature of Mr. Moran himself,

NEWARK, N.J., Sept 20th, 1873.
Messrs. JAMES SUTTON & Co.

Gentlemen,—I am delighted with the proofs the color of your chromos. They are wonderfully successful representation by mechanical process of the original paintings.

Very respectfully,
(Signed,) THOS. MORAN.

These chromos are in every sense American. They are by an original American process, with material of American manufacture, from designs of American scenery by an American painter, and presented to subscribers to the first successful American Art Journal. If no better because of all this they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can inspire, and neither are they any the worse if by reason of peculiar facilities of production they cost the publishers only a trifle, while equal in every respect to other chromos that are sold singly for double the subscription price of THE ALDINE. Persons of taste will prize these pictures for themselves—not for the price they did or did not cost, and will appreciate the enterprise that renders their distribution possible.

If any subscribers should indicate a preference for a figure subject, the publishers will send "Thoughts of Home," a new and beautiful chromo, 14 x 20 inches, representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longings of his heart.

TERMS,

$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free.

For 50 Cents Extra, the chromos will be sent, mounted, varnished, and prepaid by mail.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificated is given, bearing the facsimile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.

SHOT.—A couple of smart typos who work in this city, wishing to recuperate after prodigious efforts at their cases for several weeks, betook themselves yesterday into the neighboring woods for a hunt. The day was warm and bright, and consequently game was rather scarce. After wandering about the forest for three or four hours one of the sportsmen spied a solitary sparrow perched up a small tree, took good aim, fired, and to his utter amazement the bird flew away untouched. Cries of "oh my, oh my," proceeded from his companion who had wandered off; and on running up where the cries came from, he found his friend lying on his back, with his feet in the air, thinking he was killed. The shot took effect in the back and face of his companion, who was standing about fifty yards to the left of where the sparrow sat. Fortunately the shot had about spent their force and only stung the typo who had quietly laid down to die.

KEY WEST, December 18.

The small steamer Dispatch, Captain W. D. Whiting, which had been assigned by the United States to the duty of receiving the surrender, sailed from Key West Sunday evening, and arrived in the harbor of Bahia Honda the next morning, where she found the Virginius in charge of the Spanish sloop-of-war La Favorita, Senor de LaCamard commanding. Shortly after noon the latter came on board the Despatch, and made arrangements with Captain Whiting for the surrender at 9 o'clock a. m. Tuesday. His visit was returned later in the day by Capt. Whiting. The intercourse was of the most courteous character.

On Tuesday the weather was bright and clear. The only spectators of the scene about to take place were the men on the Despatch and La Favorita, and some ragged and dirty Cubans in fishing smacks, apparently intent upon fishing alone. At 8½ o'clock the gig came over from La Favorita to the Virginius, containing the oarsmen and a single officer.

As the latter stepped on deck an officer and half a dozen men, who had stood watch on the Virginius during the night went over the side and remained in a dingy awaiting orders. Punctually as the bells on the Dispatch struck for nine, and before the echo died away the American flag flew to the flagstaff of the Virginius, and at the same moment a boat containing Capt. Whiting and Lieut. Manax put away from the Dispatch. As they ascended the accommodation ladders of the Virginius, a single man on deck, who proved to be Senor De La Camara, advanced and made a courteous salute. The officers then read their respective instructions, and Capt. De La Camara remarked that in obedience to the requirements of his government he had the honor to turn over the steamer Virginius to the American authorities.

Capt. Whiting accepted, and ascertaining that a receipt would be acceptable, gave one. A word or two more were civilly spoken, and the Spaniard stepped over the side and signalled his oarsmen, and in ten minutes was upon the deck of his own vessel, having discharged with becoming dignity the unpleasant duty imposed upon him by his government. The engines of the Virginius were found to be in bad condition, and she had to be towed to sea by the Dispatch.

Both vessels left the harbor at 3 p. m., the Spanish flag being displayed by the fort as they passed. At 8 p. m. they were met by the naval tug Fortune.—Steam was subsequently got up on the Virginius and she, with the Dispatch, went to Tortugas, where they met the Ossipee and a coal schooner.

Provisions will be transferred from the Ossipee to the Virginius, and whatever coal may be needed will be supplied by the schooner. When supplied with provisions and coal, the Virginius will probably be sent to a Northern port. Washington and Norfolk are mentioned. She will not enter the harbor of Key West at all, express orders to that effect having been received from Washington.

The Fortune proceeded to Key West, where she arrived this p. m., with dispatches to Admiral Scott giving a full account of the surrender.

The officers and crews of the Despatch and La Favorita, members of the prize crews, and a correspondent of the Tribune, were the only witnesses of the surrender. Not a single person appeared on the Bay, and not an inhabitant of the town of Bahia Honda or the surrounding country felt sufficient interest in the proceedings to walk or sail to the scene. Some Americans presented themselves at the entrance of the harbor in a chartered vessel, but not being provided with clearance papers and passports were stopped by a boat from the fort in several attempts to enter the harbor, and finally withdrew without witnessing the surrender.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF THE
WILMINGTON MARKETS.

[NOTE.—Last Friday being the gala day of the Cape Fear Agricultural Association, was observed by our merchants as a general holiday. No business being done, our compendium of the week's resume of the naval store and cotton markets will commence with Saturday's operations.]

CRUDE TURPENTINE—As has been recorded for the past two or three weeks, this article has undergone no change, and has remained in a dormant state. The stereotyped manner of placing receipts has been indulged in as heretofore. The receipts placed foot up 894 barrels, against 979 bbls. of the preceding week. With the advance in the manufactured article, we can confidently look for an advance in the Crude in a few days. To-day yellow dip advanced 5 cents, and closes quiet at $2 95.

TAR—Under an increasing stock, and a falling off in the demand, the market for this article has evinced a weaker feeling, and has declined. On Saturday it opened at $2 45, the closing quotation of our last review; Monday the market was quoted dull, with no sales, and on Tuesday a decline of 20 cents from last reported sales was effected. On Wednesday a further decline of 5 cents was noted, the masket closing weak at $2 20. To-day a further decline of 5 cents was effected, and closing quiet at $2 15. The receipts for the week foot up 631 bbls. against 645 bbls. of last week.

ROSIN—This article has been, for Strained, very dull, and buyers show no disposition to operate to only a very limited extent. The finer grades are scarce, and is, with better enquiry, commanding better prices, but is generally held above the views of buyers. The accumulated stock in New York has a depressing effect, and prices rule low, with but little indications of any immediate improvement. Saturday, the market opened for Strained at $2 20, which was a decline of 5 cents from the last reported sales; and on Monday the market was reported quiet and dull, with $2 15 bid; Tuesday, a firmer feeling was recorded, with sales made at $2 15; Wednesday, there were no reported spot sales—$2 15 was bid, but sellers held for higher figures—1,000 bbls., buyer's option, for December delivery, was sold at $2 22½, the market closing quiet and steady. The receipts for the week of all grades foot up 9,238 bbls., against 9,694 bbls. for last week.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—This article opened on Saturday at a decline of 1 cent from Thursday's quotations, and on Monday the market was quoted quiet and steady with no reported sales, but it was quite evident that the undertone was weak and a further decline was looked for. Tuesday morning sales of 320 casks were effected at 37½ cents, but in the afternoon a firm feeling was manifest, and sales of 250 casks were made at 38 cents, which was an advance of 1 cent over the morning quotations. Wednesday the market opened firm, with 38 cents being freely bid, and before the close of the days operations sales were effected at 38½, 39, 39½ and 40 cts. the market closing firm. To-day the market opened quiet, with small sales being effected at 40 cents. Later a decline of 1 cent was effected, the market closing quiet at 39 cents.

The advance in this article is attributable to the diminishing of the stock, here, New York and London, and the increased shipping, consumption and speculative demands. The receipts for the week foot up 1,603 casks against 2,081 casks of last week.

COTTON—The market for the past week has taken a course not unlike that of the previous week, that is the fluctuations have been about the same in extent and time. This difference, however, is observable, that at the close there is an absence of that feeling of depression noticed at the conclusion of our last report. The market was quite firm throughout the latter portion of the week, and with light stock and a good demand prices have advanced ¼ cent, closing steady and firm at the advance. The resume for the week is as follows:

SATURDAY—The market was quoted firm, but without any change from Thursday's quotations. Sales of 60 bales, at Ordinary,	12	cents ₱ lb.

Strict Good Ordinary,	13¾	" "
Low Middling,	14¼	" "
Strict Low Middling,	14½	" "

MONDAY—The views of buyers and sellers were apart, and the day closed with no reported sales. Stock was held higher nominally ⅛ to ¼ cent. Quotations were:

Good Ordinary,	13¼	" "
Strict Good Ordinary,	13¾	" "
Low Middling,	14¼	" "
Strict Low Middling,	14½	" "

TUESDAY was characterized by a very firm feeling, and the market advanced ¼ cent. Sales of 50 bales at quotations:

Good Ordinary,	14	" "
Strict Good Ordinary,	14½	" "
Low Middling,	15	" "
Strict Low Middling,	15¼	" "

WEDNESDAY—The strong feeling developed on Tuesday was maintained to-day, the market retaining its buoyancy up to the close of the day's operations. Sales of 170 bales at quotations:

Good Ordinary,	14	" "
Strict Good Ordinary,	14½	" "
Low Middling,	15	" "

THURSDAY—The strong feeling noted yesterday was not maintained to-day. The feeling is much easier, the market closing quiet at the following nominal quotations:

Strict Good Ordinary,	14¼	" "

The New-Berne Times says Bro. C. C. Clark in the Grand Lodge of Masons in Raleigh week before last after the vote had passed to give the Oxford Orphan Asylum $1,000 out of the Grand Lodge funds, proposed that each Mason present should give $1 and he started the thing by plunking down his dollar, all following suit with a will. We never gave a dollar more cheerfully to any object in our life than on that occasion, and we hope and believe that there is no Mason in the State who will fail to respond when called upon, as he will be, to plank down their dollar or dollars. Give all you are able to this Asylum, Brothers, for it is a noble charity and should be near to every true man's heart. Remember that all orphans whether of Masons or not are here received and cared for.

THE NEW YORK DAILY TIMES

It has the latest news, the best foreign correspondence, and the largest staff of home correspondents. All objectionable news and advertisements are rigidly excluded.

THE WEEKLY TIMES.

THE WEEKLY TIMES is undoubtedly the best paper for the farmer, for the mechanic, and for all who live in localities which are served only by weekly mails. It contains, in addition to editorial comments on current topics, an excellent condensation of the news of the week; the most important events, both home and foreign, are reviewed at length, and a large quantity of matter is given especially interesting to the farmer and mechanic. PROSPECTUS.

THE EVENING POST.

J. C. MANN,

EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Published every evening, except Sunday, at

Five Dollars per Annum.

The POST is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the up to the time of going to press,

LATEST NEWS,

TELEGRAPHIC,
BY MAIL,
COMMERCIAL AND LOCAL.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city.

Politically the POST is

UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicisitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the POST, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

EDUCATIONAL,
AGRICULTURAL,
MECHANICAL, or COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastic ally in THE POST.

THE POST

is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.

Fayetteville, N C. Nov 1, 1873 147

Prof. Max Muller, Prof. Tyndall, Prof Huxley, Lord Lytton, Fritz Reuter, Mrs Oliphant, Dr W. B. Carpenter, C. Kingsley, Erckmann Chatrain, Ivan Turguenieff, Matthew Arnold, W. F. H. Lecky, Miss Thackeray, Miss Muloch, Prof. Richard A. Proctor, Katharine C. Macquoid, Jean Ingelow, Geo. MacDonald. Froude, and Gladstone, are some of the eminent authors lately represented in the pages of

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.

A weekly magazine of sixty-four pages, THE LIVING AGE gives more than THREE AND A QUARTER THOUSAND double-column octavo pages of reading-matter yearly, forming four large volumes. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its great amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a satisfactory completeness attempted by no other publication, the best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Tales, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical, and Political Information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature.

A NEW SERIES

Was begun Jan. 1, 1873, with entirely new Tales, already embracing Serial and Short Stories by distinguished English, French, German, and Russian authors; viz., Lord Lytton (Bulwer,) Erckmann-Chatrian, Ivan Turguenieff, Miss Thackeray, Mrs. Oliphant, Fritz Reuter, Mrs Parr (author of "Dorothy Fox") Julia Kavanagh, &c.

During the coming year, as heretofore, the choicest serial and short stories by the Leading Foreign Authors will be given, together will an amount unapproached by any other periodical in the world, of the best literary and scientific matter of the day, from the pens of the above-named and other foremost Essayists Scientists, Critics, Discoverers, and Editors, representing every department of knowledge and progress.

The importance of THE LIVING AGE to every American reader, as the only complete as well as fresh compilation of a generally inaccessible but indispensable current literature,—indispensable because it embraces the productions of THE ABLEST LIVING WRITERS in all branches of Literature, Science, Art, and Politics,—is sufficiently indicated by the following

OPINIONS.

"Reproduces the best thoughts of the best minds of the civilized world, upon all topics of living interest."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"In no other single publication can there be found so much of sterling literary excellence,"—The Nation, New York.

"And the cheapest. A monthly that comes every week."—THE ADVANCE, CHICAGO.

"The ablest essays, the most entertaining stories, the finest poetry of the English language, are here gathered together."—Illinois State Journal.

"With it alone a reader may fairly keep up with all that is important in the literature, history, politics, and science of the day."—The Methodist, New York.

"In view of all the competitors in the field, I should certainly chose "The Living Age"—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher.

"The best periodical in America."—Rev. Dr. Cuyler.

"Has no equal in any country."—Phila. Press.

"Indispensable to every one who desires a thorough compendium of all that is admirable and noteworthy in the literary world."—Boston Post.

THE LIVING AGE is sent a year (52 numbers,) postpaid, on receipt of $8; or six copies for $40,

EXTRA OFFERS FOR 1874.

THE EVENING POST

is devoted almost exclusively to the prospects of the Cape Fear region. Its columns are always open for the discussion of matters of local interest, that both sides may be understood. It should, therefore, be endorsed and sustained by our citizens of both political parties. Only $5 a year in advance, or fifty cents a month.

THE EVENING POST

is published every evening except Sundays, at only
